Please be sure to include a phone number or e-mail above, in case we have questions about your membership. Affirmation's most effective method of communication with its members is through e-mail, including newsletters, special notices, etc. The Affirmation mailing list is kept strictly confidential, and is never shared with any other organization. In order to preserve precious resources, if you have an email address Affirmation will send your Affinity newsletter via email, unless you specifically request it to be delivered by U.S. mail instead. Please check the following box if you need the newsletter mailed to your mailing address: (Please send me Affinity by U.S. mail.)

For purposes of anonymity, if you prefer to never receive any US-mailings or phone calls from Affirmation (and prefer to communicate via e-mail only), you may leave your street mailing address and phone number blank above – but please at least indicate what city & state you're from if possible, for internal research purposes. You are also not required to provide your actual/legal name – you may use a pseudonym if you wish.
