

The View from Here

Moderate ballad ♩ = 60

Words & Music by DAVID R. NAYLOR

Lead

Tenor/Alto Baritone

Piano

4

CHOIR UNISON 1st verse mp

p-mp I re - mem - ber nights a - lone, My heart filled with long - ing
In my heart, a prayer for life That might be worth liv - ing.

add T. B. 2nd verse

poco rit. p-mp

7

For a life that I could call my own. Ne - ver be - ing true to the Pro - mis - es made I could - n't keep. Sud - den - ly the dawn of a light with - in me, new day ris - ing, Light that finds a home with - in my soul. One that chan - ges ev - ery - thing I

10

13

2. mf unis. Chorus

see. mf unis. Chorus And the view from here is co - lored like a rain - bow Lend - ing light to all who cross my way. And the 19

16

mp

view I see fills my heart with love, Beau - ti - ful and clear the view from mp

22

here. Reach - ing now, I take the hands of 25

all who stand be - side me; Stand - ing as one with fam - i - ly;

28

Thank - ful for the gift that God has placed with - in me, True to the light that shines in

31

(1st time CHOIR UNISON)

gradually build through each repeat of the chorus

me And the view from here is co - lored like a rain - bow (2nd, 3rd times only)
 The view from here, Co - lored like a rain - bow,

34

Lend - ing light to all ___ who cross my way. And the view I see ___ Lend - ing light to all who cross my way! ___ Ahh ___

37

1.,2.

fills my heart with love,

Beau - ti - ful and clear the view from here!

And the 40

3.

Beau - ti - ful and clear,

Beau - ti - ful and clear,

Beau - ti - ful and clear the view from 43

here!

a tempo

rit.

molto